

PEOPLE IN CAMERA

Goscor Power Products GM Mark Bester with the new Subaru EA vertical petrol engine installed on a lawnmower. The engine will be officially launched in South Africa in September. One of the most important features of the EA vertical engine is that lubrication takes place through the chain, enabling the engine to run at an angle. This is critical for lawnmowers, which do not work on flat terrain only